

Btw, Houston is lit.

NASA/ Space Center

Space Center Houston is a leading science and space exploration learning center located in South Houston. Open daily from 9AM-6PM, ticket prices range from $24.95 to $29.95. Plan your visit here.

The Museum District

The Museum District is Houston's cultural heart and one of the top cultural districts in the country. 19 museums make up this area and some of the most noteworthy include: Houston Museum of Natural Science, Museum of Fine Arts, and The Children's Museum of Houston. Go here for more info on times and ticket pricing.

The Galleria

Spanning more than 2.4 million square feet, The Houston Galleria Is home to over 400 stores and restaurants. It is Texas' largest shopping center and the 4th largest nationally. Check it out here, for more things to see and do at or around the Galleria area.

Pappasito's + Pappadeaux

Pappas restaurants originated in Houston and now are a staple in and around the city. Though there are many versions, Pappasito's (serving Tex-Mex) and Pappadeaux (serving seafood) are among the most popular. A must try when visiting the city.

Dunham Bible Museum

The Dunham Bible Museum boasts an extensive collection of rare bibles and is located in the Morris Cultural Arts Center of Houston Baptist University. It is open Monday-Saturday 10AM-4PM and you can find out more, here.

Discovery Green Park

Discovery Green is a 12-acre urban park located in Downtown Houston with lots to see and do! From canoeing, live music stages, splash pads, art installations, playgrounds, and more, Discovery Green is a true Houston gem. Find out more here.

Lanier Theological Library

Lanier Theological Library is a 17,000 sq. ft non-circulating research library located in northwest Houston and is open on weekdays from 9AM-5PM. In addition to a vast collection of books and journals, the library also has a collection of ancient artifacts. Check out more about visiting here.

Galveston Island

Located 50 miles southwest of Houston you will find Galveston Island on the edge of the Gulf Coast. Not only will you find sand and surf, but also tourist faves: Pleasure Pier (amusement park+rides), Moody Gardens (resort+aquarium) and The Strand (shopping+dining). If you are extending your stay in the Houston area, Galveston Is a great place to visit!

